

Dehut's Special Announcement

Fall, 2023

When Paul had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach to gospel to them. (Acts 16:10)

Dear friends, thank you for all of encouragement, prayer and financial assistance you have provided for us during our time in Louisville! Our goal was to live near my parents to honor them however they needed while my youngest brother was at home, and my mother's health necessitated it. My brother has begun his senior year of high school, my mother's health is stable, and my father is making plans to be more available for her. With all of that in place and after consulting our elders and close family and friends, Anna and I believe it is time for me to look into opportunities to serve with a local church as a located evangelist again.

Possible Timing

Our ideal plan is to remain in Kentucky through this school year, until my brother graduates from high school. (We can be somewhat flexible on that timing depending on the needs of the next church.) But that means this school year we will be researching what churches may need someone to labor with them in the kingdom...(continued on the next page)

Future Work

My current work load will remain what it is for the time being. However, I will need to make adjustments once I am plugged in more locally in the future. I will send out another report soon with an update on our support level, and additional details regarding studies, workshops, gospel meetings and camps.

Future Support

In my next report I will provide an accounting of our current support level. If the timing works the way we anticipate, we will need all the support we can maintain through the end of next May. However, that could change. We just won't know what our future support situation will look like until our future plans firm up.

Future Location

At this point, Anna and I are open to considering any opportunities where the Lord may need us. This is such a different transition than when we moved here. We had such a narrow geographic range. This time, we are open to hearing about the needs that exist wherever they may be. So if you know of a church anywhere looking for an evangelist that you think we might be a good fit with, please feel free to share my contact information with them.

As you can tell, there is a lot about our future that is unknown. We are grateful for the chances to serve and grow during the last four+ years. We are also excited at what our next season of service may look like. We have already shared our decision with the kids and have been praying about it. Like Paul in Acts 16, we will prayerfully consider what we know and reach the best conclusion we can about the next section of the vineyard God may want us to labor in. Please keep us in your prayers as we go about this process. If you have any questions at any time, don't hesitate to contact me.

As always, I am your grateful brother,

Jeremy Dehut
