

Parable Of The Sower

TEXT: Matthew 13:1-23

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

1. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
2. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Pharisee & Tax Collector

TEXT: Luke 18:9-14

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Parables of Lost Things

TEXT: Luke 15

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

Laborers in the Vineyard

TEXT: Matthew 20:1-16

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Good Samaritan

TEXT: Luke 10

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Ten Talents

TEXT: Matthew 25:14-30

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Kingdom Parables

TEXT: Matthew 13:24-52

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Unforgiving Servant

TEXT: Matthew 18:21-35

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Dishonest Manager

TEXT: Luke 16:1-13

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Rich Man & Lazarus

TEXT: Luke 16:19-31

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Marriage Feast

TEXT: Matthew 22:1-14

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?

The Ten Virgins

TEXT: Matthew 25:1-13

Please read the text and answer the questions below prior to class.

INTRODUCTION

1. How would you categorize this parable and why?
2. What is the setting for this parable? Who is the audience?
3. What do you think is the primary point of this parable? Be prepared to discuss this in class.
4. List any additional Bible passages that make this point.
5. What stands out to you from this parable?

APPLICATION

6. What application was Jesus trying to make to his original audience?
7. As followers of Jesus today, how should we apply this parable?